Objective of the programme

Fun games will be more entertaining. These can be fun as well as entertaining where the students can compete with each other as a group or individuals. Group activities can also help in teaching students to communicate with each other and respect a healthy competition. According to research, using games in educational institutions can help increase student participation s, remove stage fear, foster social and emotional learning, and motivate students to take risks. So we we planned to conduct various fun games in the event , nearly 350 students participated enthusiastically and won prizes. The Programme was conducted on 07-03-2022.
